

KEENE'S FUNERAL HALTS BROADWAY'S BUSIEST THROG

Brokers, Lawyers, Horsemen and Men of Many Callings Attend Services.

Brokers, old trainers of race horses and members of racing associations, lawyers and men of affairs, gathered for the most part in the informality of business suits, filled Grace Church, Tenth street and Broadway, to-day to pay their final debt of respect to the late James R. Keene at his funeral. From distant points in this country and from donors across the water were the floral offerings of others who could not be present.

The old church that stands in the midst of Broadway's roar and bustle began to fill at 9.30 o'clock. Crowds of waiting tailors, dress makers and shoe makers were besieging by the presence of so many carriages and automobiles at the entrance to the church yard, banked themselves against the iron fence to see what they could.

DOUBLY BEREAVED NEPHEW ONE OF MOURNERS.

At the door of the church stood William Roman, Keene's confidential man in the financial district for a great many years, and Algernon Dainford, a nephew of the deceased. Dainford, whose own father, Major Foxhall Dainford, died in Lexington, Ky., yesterday. Algernon Dainford had promised to assist the family of Mr. Keene at the funeral here before he hurried to attend that of his own father.

Mrs. James R. Keene, whose age has made her feeble and who was suffering severely from the shock of her husband's death, was not in the church; she remained with companions at her home in Cedarhurst, L. I. The two children of the dead man, "Foxhall" Keene and Mrs. Talbot Taylor, and Mrs. Taylor's three children, James Keene, Talbot and Mary, were the only members of the family present. They occupied the front pew at the right of the main aisle.

Those entering the church saw a plain black casket resting under a great pall of violets in the center of the chancel, all about it a wealth of pressed-up bouquets. The air in the dim interior was heavy with the odor of the thousands of flowers. Among the floral offerings were those from John G. Follansbee, Mrs. Clarence M. Ogilby, Joseph Butters, John E. Madden, the horse racer and breeder; Lady Kaye of London, Robert J. Collier, the Jockey Club, the Juvenile Jockey Club and the Saratoga Racing Association.

BANKERS AND TURF MEN HONOR DEAD ASSOCIATE.

Among the well-known men who attended the funeral were Thomas F. Ryan, "Diamond Jim" Brady, Henry Clews, James Rowe, the old turfman and trainer; Andrew Miller, Phil Dwyer, the once intrepid plunger and horse owner; H. K. Knapp, David Giddon, W. O. Reilly, turfman; Jack Bradford, son of John Bradford of the Racing Association; William Lakeland and Arthur Hunter, old associates of Keene's in horse training; J. Pierpont Morgan's and August Belmont's names appeared among the list of honorary pallbearers, but they were not present. The pallbearers were McPherson Kennedy, Frank J. Sturges, Andrew Miller, Solomon Hanford and Dr. Sinclair Smith.

After the Rev. Charles L. Slattery had read the funeral service, and the casket was carried from the church and deposited in a hearse, a few minutes following it to Grand Central Station, where it was conveyed to Woodlawn cemetery on the 11.30 o'clock train. Another and brief service was held at the grave.

BARON HELD AS BIGAMIST SAYS HE'S A KAISER'S SON.

Declares First Wife Had Already Married, So He Was Free to Wed Again.

Heino Frederick Leopold von Gohde Eulenberg, who says he is a baron Frederick Wilhelm of Germany by a morganatic marriage and who has been in the Hudson County Jail at Jersey City since last Tuesday, having been brought from Rochester charged with bigamy, was arraigned this morning before County Judge Blair. He entered a plea of not guilty.

He says that when he was married in Jersey City he believed he was free to do so. He admits having previously married at Toronto, but says he found that the woman he married already had a husband living.

He will seek to establish the fact of her previous marriage. She was Miss Jeannette Craven. The other woman he married was Miss Mildred Wisland of No. 177 Henlock street, Brooklyn.

Have Color in Your Cheeks—Be Better Looking—Try Olive Tablets.

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

These Olive Tablets oil the bowels—yet have no oily taste. They are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil.

If you want a clear pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause. Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

They are our direct imports, hand-colored to our order, most artistically, in handsome burnished antique frames, all ornamented. Among them are a number of artist-proof Photogravures, being early impressions from the original plate, each signed by the artist. 6th Floor
